

JUDICIAL TRAINING AND RESEARCH INSTITUTE
U.P., LUCKNOW.

---

A Report of Constitution Day Celebration on 26th November, 2020 at JTRI,
U.P., Lucknow

‘Constitution Day or Samvidhan Diwas’ is celebrated annually in our country on 26th November. The day is also known as National Law Day. The day commemorates the adoption of the Constitution of India as on this day in 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India formally adopted the Constitution of India which came into force on 26th January, 1950. The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India, notified on 19th November, 2015 the decision of the Government of India to celebrate 26th November as ‘Constitution Day’. The purpose behind celebrating 26th November as ‘Constitution Day’ every year is to promote constitutional values among the citizens of India. It is also celebrated as a mark of tribute to India’s First Law Minister Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, who played a pivotal role in drafting the Indian Constitution.

In compliance to the directions issued by the Government of India and the State Government of Uttar Pradesh regarding celebration of Constitution Day and 'Reading Preamble of the Constitution of India', Hon'ble Chairman, Director of the Institute, Faculty Members and the entire staff of JTRI gathered at the canopy of the institute to celebrate and read out the Preamble of the Constitution of India on 26th Day of November, 2020 at 1100 hrs.

The Chairman of the institute Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mahboob Ali read out the Preamble which was followed repeated by all the Faculty Members and staff of JTRI present. It is to be mentioned that before the 'Reading of the Preamble', respected

Director of the institute gave a brief outline of the manner in which the Drafting Committee of the Constituent Assembly passed a resolution on 26th November, 1949 as to highlight the importance of the Constitution Day. He made valuable reflections on the values enshrined in the Preamble.

Hon'ble Chairman of the institute after leading the 'Reading of the Preamble of the Constitution of India' brightly highlighted the importance of equality, justice, fraternity, unity and integrity of the nation and the individual efforts which go a long way in strengthening the rich heritage and value system of our nation. He appealed to everyone present in the gathering to believe and practice brotherhood while working in the institute and to avoid ill-will towards anyone on any ground and perform duties with hard work, dedication, honesty and said that would be a real tribute to the importance of 'Constitution Day'.

Dr. Humayun Rasheed Khan
Additional Director (Research)
JTRI, U.P., Lucknow.