FROM THE DESK OF THE DIRECTOR

The training calendar year 2019-2020, has indeed been an year of intense activities. The Judicial Training & Research Institute (JTRI) has conducted record number of 103 training programmes of various nature. These training programmes include Induction Training for the Additional District Judges (DHJS) and Civil Judges (J.D.); Special Training Programmes for newly promoted Additional District Judges; Training for the Deputy Registrars of the High Court; Special Training/Sensitization of Family Court Judges; Special Training Programme on Anticipatory Bail for District Judges; Orientation Workshop on Motor Accident Claim Matters, etc. For the officers of the Civil Judges (J.D.), an educational tour of places of historical and cultural importance viz Agra, Kushinagar and Varanasi was organized. Training to the officers of the Indian Defence Accounts Service and Judges Advocate General, Eastern Command of the Indian Navy was also provided. Under the guidance of Hon'ble the Chief Justice/Patron-in-Chief, the JTRI has introduced decentralized training at the District Level, under the cluster training module. In partnership with the Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi, Special Management Development Programme Training has been provided to 1042 judicial officers.

In the backdrop of COVID-19 pandemic the JTRI has recently organized online induction and special training for Civil Judges (J.D.) and Additional District Judges.

Efforts have been to consistently enhance and upgrade the infrastructure. Accordingly, during the course of the year a new 18 rooms Hostel Extension, 'JTRI Guest House', a new '120 seater Meemansa Classroom' and other structures were inaugurated. The process of equipping the classrooms with improved acoustics and smart boards has also been completed.

DOWN THE MEMORY LANE

1. Sri Md. Badruzzaman, Director General, Judicial Administration Training Institute, Dhaka, Bangladesh on his visit to JTRI on 12.09.1997 –

"I along with the Director and two Deputy Directors of our Institute visited this Institute as a part of Study tour to different Judicial Training Institutes and National Law School at Bangladesh. Though this Institute is only 11 years old, it has established itself as a model in the Sub-continent. We are highly impressed by the training syllabus, methodology of training, Library and Publication section. This visit will help us a lot in developing our Institute which has recently been set up by an Act of the parliament."

2. Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.B. Sinha, Acting Chief Justice, Calcutta High Court (as His Lordship then was) on His Lordship's visit to JTRI on 24.07.1999 –

"I am overawed by the activities of this august Institution. Training of the judicial officers has become a must, keeping in view the changes in law and the magnitude thereof. This Institute has taken all possible steps to make the judicial officers know, what they should. I wish this Institute all success."

3. Hon'ble Mr. Justice G.B. Patnaik, Judge, Supreme Court of India (as His Lordship then was) on His Lordship's visit to JTRI on 20.11.1999 –

"It is great pleasure to go round this institute and find the activities. The Library also is quite well equipped. I am sure, this institute will prove highly beneficial in the administration of justice of the State. The Govt. should come forward liberally in funding the institute, to make it the best in the country. I wish the institute great success."

4. Hon'ble Dr. Justice B.S. Chauhan, Judge, Supreme Court of India on His Lordship's visit to JTRI on 18.05.2003 –

"It is always a good experience to be in the Institute of learning. It is very well managed. Please keep it up."

5. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Dinesh Maheshwari, Judge, Rajasthan High Court, Jodhpur (as His Lordship then was) on His Lordship's visit to JTRI on 11.12.2005 –

"To have joined the Institutes programme today was an experience quite fulfilling. The trainee judicial officer of Rajasthan seems to be enjoying the facilities provided by the Institute and utilized their time at optimum best. I have visited library also and found it most methodically managed. I would love to be here over again."

- In addition the cluster training programme by Way of Workshops, Refresher and Orientation Courses to continue. Under this novel initiative introduced for the first time during the academic year 2019-20, wherein the 75 districts of U.P. have been subdivided into 22 clusters and in accordance thereto, on certain specified legal topics most in application, questionnaire based discussions are held at the district level. As per the design of the training programme, all the judicial officers participate in the specific cluster of districts of their posting which are held every quarter. Thus, 88 programmes are likely to be held and thereby around 11000 officers would be in participation during the entire stretch of the training programme.
- Subject to availability of budgetary resources the management development programme (MDP) as are being organized in batches of 40 officers for 05 days in collaboration with Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA), New Delhi is likely to continue during the current year. So far in the 38 MDP training programmes, 1402 judicial officers have participated.
- Once every 02 months, the JTRI will organize special one day workshops on various legal issues, viz. NDPS Act; Commercial Courts; MACT; Law pertaining to various disadvantaged sections like women, children, aged persons, other vulnerable groups like SCs, STs, differently abled; persons affected with mental illness, Land Acquisition, etc.
- 02 Days second phase workshop for Sensitization of Family Court Judges to be organized on the date as may be fixed by the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Allahabad.
- Other conferences/workshops/colloquium etc. would be organized as per the programme chalked out by the JTRI or in terms of directions of the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Allahabad.

In the backdrop of COVID-19 Pandemic, the JTRI has temporarily shifted to the online platform. In the process, online induction training has been imparted to 453 Civil Judges (J.D.) and 47 Additional District Judges (DHJS) from 22 June, 2020 to 05 August, 2020. Besides, special 02 weeks training has been also conducted online for 74 newly promoted Additional District Judges from 20 July, 2020 to 31 July, 2020.
